2.1. Financial and economic indicators of the Issuer's performance

Dynamics of indicators characterizing the Issuer's financial performance calculated on the basis of information contained in accounting (financial) statements

The standard (rules), according to which accounting (financial) statements have been prepared, used as a base for calculations: RAS

Unit of measurement for labour efficiency calculation: thousand rubles/person

Description	2015, 6 months	2016, 6 months
Labor efficiency	5,825	5,862
Debt to equity ratio	58.7	67.1
Leverage ratio	23.9	29.7
Debt coverage ratio	1.3	-0.2
Overdue debt level, %	0.7	0.8
Net assets, RUB thousand	326,732,209	330,937,283

Analysis of the Issuer's financial and economic performance on the basis of economic analysis of the specified indicators dynamics:

The increase in the Company's net assets amounted to:

+1.3% - as of 30.06.2016 as compared to 30.06.2015, which was due to the increase in accumulated earnings and respective growth of the Issuer's equity capital.

In H 1 2016 the net equity value exceeded the Issuer's authorized capital 55- fold.

“Debt to equity” ratio As of 30.06.2016 the debt to equity ratio was 67.1%. The growth by 8.4 percent points vs. one half of 2015 was caused by the increase in long-term credits and loans.

Leverage ratio As of 30.06.2016 the share of long-term loans in the total amount of NLMK’s constant liabilities increased by 5.8 p.p. compared to as of 30.06.2015 and made 29.7%. The increased index is also accounted for the involvement of long-term credits and loans.

Debt coverage by current profits (income)

As of 30.06.2016, the index value was negative due to the excess cash over the short-term liabilities. Increase in cash by 2.7 times in H1 2016 vs. H1 2015 was due to the growth of other funds (cash pooling).

The level of overdue accounts payable in NLMK’s total debt in H 1 2016 was insignificant. It is indicative of the Issuer’s timely debt repayment.

Workforce productivity

In the 1st half of 2016 workforce productivity remained at the level of the previous year, due to the reduced revenue from sales (-3%) with the optimization of headcount (the change was 3%).

Note:

In order to calculate the indicator "Overdue debt level, %" the information on the amount of overdue accounts payable based on statistical reporting form No.P-3 "Information on the Company’s financial status" was used.

Such liabilities did not occur within this reporting period.

2.3.4. Other liabilities of the Issuer

There are no other liabilities not reflected in the accounting (financial) statements that may have a significant effect on the financial status of the Issuer, its liquidity, sources of financing and terms and conditions of their utilization, performance and expenses.

2.4. Risks related to acquisition of securities being distributed (distributed)

The Issuer's risk management policy:

Acquisition of the Issuer's securities entails certain risks which could result in losses for their holders. Negative impact on the Issuer's core business and financial performance can be generated by the following risks:

- industry risks;
- country and regional risks;
- financial risks;
- legal risks;
- risk of loss of a goodwill (reputational risk);
- strategic risk;
- risks related to the Issuer's business.

Risk management policy is demanded to protect interests of shareholders, interested parties and the Company as a whole by means of the system for efficient risk management and is aimed at creation of a shareholder value and achievement of strategic targets.

The main task of the risk management system is to ensure a reasonable guarantee of the Company's achievement of the targets:

- 1) improve the quality of corporate governance;*
- 2) improve business efficiency;*
- 3) ensure compliance with the Company's requirements;*
- 4) ensure the quality of financial statements.*

2.4.1. Industry risks

1. Procurement of raw and other materials

NLMK is one of the major consumers of steelmaking raw materials in the domestic raw materials market. Raw materials supplies are subject to risks depending on the specific nature of each segment of the raw materials market.

The scope of key risks inherent to the supplies of main steel-making raw materials in Q2 of 2016 includes:

1. Risk of price growth for purchased materials due to deteriorating conditions of this market segment, increased raw & other materials shortages in the domestic market, also as a result of the scaling up of the tariffs for transportation by natural monopolies.

2. Risk of obligations default by suppliers regarding the composition and quality of raw materials supplied.

3. Risk of obligations default by suppliers related to deliveries cycle maintenance up to complete disruption of logistic support.

Those risks for the reporting period are at the level of the previous quarter and have no significant additional effect on the process of procurement of the main types of metallurgical raw materials.

2. Supply of finished products

Foreign market

In Q2 of 2016 the risk of reduced demand for flats out of ferrous metals continued to weaken against the background of the positive dynamics of the global macro-economic indicators. Upon preliminary assessment the global net apparent consumption of rolled products in the reporting period increased by 2.5% vs. Q1 of 2016.¹ Positive quarterly growth in demand remained in North America (7.1% compared to Q1), Asia (2.2%) and the Middle East (4.9%). EU-28 market has shown zero dynamics. The decline in demand for flat products was recorded in

Africa (-6.4%), Central and South America (-4.1%).

In Q3 of 2016 there is a risk of decreased demand for flat products, mainly due to lower customer's restocking and a seasonal slowdown in demand in some regions.

According to estimates of analytical agencies the forecast growth in global consumption of flat products on the basis of 2016 results was revised upwards: from + 0.1% yoy in April 2016 to + 1.4%.

Domestic market

Against the background of favourable seasonal factors in the domestic market in Q2 of 2016 the risk of decrease in demand for flat steel products was noted to be weakened. However, uncharacteristically high volumes of purchased flat products at the beginning of the year contributed to the formation of surplus stocks at consumers (especially in the pipe industry) and trading companies by the end of the 2nd quarter.

The risk of reduction in domestic demand may remain for the 3rd quarter of 2016.

Risks associated with potential change in prices for the Issuer's products.

At the beginning of the 2nd quarter of 2016 there was a weakening of reduction risk in world prices for flat rolled products. After reaching the bottom in December 2015 and up to May 2016, world prices for flat-rolled products showed an increase on average by 48% for 5 months after the significant fall in the end of 2015. In May, the world markets began to capture changes in market trends, in June and July, the downward trend in prices was strengthened. The risk of a smooth decrease in the world prices may continue until the end of 2016.

Domestic market prices in the 2nd quarter of 2016 showed the trend in foreign markets/

3. Transport (logistical) risks

In the course of its business for its cargo transportation the Company uses mainly railway transport. Therefore, the most significant factors related to the cargoes transportation in the Issuer's interests, which influence the Company's business, are dependent on the business of natural monopolies rendering logistics services in the rail transportation area.

The essential logistics risks for the Company are the following:

- risk of railway vehicles unavailability resulting in the disruption of raw materials deliveries and finished products shipment;
- risk of disruption of the shipment to Western Europe due to the sanctions applied to JSC PGK and LLC "First Freight Company of the Ukraine" as termination of cargo transit by these companies through the territory of Ukraine and prohibition of usage of the rolling stock owned by them;
- in accordance with Federal Tariffs Service's order dd. 21.12.2012 No. 423-m/3 "On setting the price limits (maximum and minimum levels) of tariffs for railroad transport services on goods transportation for mid-network conditions, and also with Application Rules and Conditions (settlement, amendment) of tariffs level for railroad transport services on goods transportation within the price limits (maximum and minimum levels) which were approved by the Russia Federal Tariffs Service's order dd. 18.12.2012 No. 398-m/3, from January 4, 2016 a reduction factor of 0,882 to the valid tariffs of Price-List 10-01 was set for ferrous metals transportation (items ETSNG 311-315, 321-324) in the direction of terrestrial border crossing points and port stations. The above factor is valid since January 4, 2016 till December 31, 2016 during transportation in the volume not lower than the level of 2015 for these directions. Therefore, cancellation of the decreasing factor because of failure to keep the set volume of transportation and extra charges for railway tariff is a risk for NLMK.

In order to ease the influence of risks of partial or full disruption of deliveries the Issuer forms a reasonable reserve stock of main raw materials in order to guarantee the production cycle continuity. Main material resources are supplied in accordance with approved schedules, which provide for balanced delivery cycles for continuous production of finished products.

In order to decrease the risk of partial or full disruption of finished products shipment to the Western European countries, the Issuer has agreed with JCS PGK on outsourcing third parties (LLC "KIT-FLIGHT" and LLC "TEK Zahidtransservice") within the contract for transport and forwarding services to perform cargo forwarding to Western Europe and use the rolling stock of other owners.

In order to decrease the risk of cancellation of the reduction factor because of non-fulfilment of the agreed volume of transportation and extra charges for a railway tariff with OAO RZD a joint contract from NLMK Group was concluded which shows the guaranteed volumes of transportation for each company of NLMK Group but still there is a possibility to interchange for the holding.

2.4.2. Country and regional risks

Country risks:

Limitations in sales markets • Limitations currently in force in sales markets:

- anti-dumping duties: Mexico, Peru, Thailand, Indonesia, USA.
- The EU is conducting the anti-dumping investigation related to CR products from China and Russia, which might affect NLMK's sales of those products to the EU market if a decision on duty introduction is taken.
- In Turkey an anti-dumping investigation in relation to HR products from some countries, including Russia, is completed without any measures introduction.
- In USA the anti-dumping and countervailing investigations related to CR products, are in the final stage. A preliminary anti-dumping duty for NLMK made 16.89%, a preliminary countervailing duty amounted to 6.33%. In case of actual duties introduction, it will not influence the Company's business because USA market is not the key one in this segment (CR products shipment in 2014 and 2015 made around 40 thou.t per year and before that for several years there were no shipments at all).
- In Canada anti-dumping and countervailing investigations related to plates are in progress. These investigations will not affect NLMK because plates were not supplied to Canada.
- Due to growth of steel products import from China some special protection investigations were initiated:
- In Malaysia - in regard to HR flats; this investigation will not affect NLMK because HR flats were not supplied to Malaysia;
- In India - in regard to plates; this investigation will not affect NLMK because plates were not supplied to India.
- In India an anti-dumping investigation is in progress in regard to HR flats in order to change the system of minimum prices which doesn't correspond to WTO standards. Possible introduction of trade restrictions can influence NLMK sales because HR flats supplies to India in 2015 made 115 thou t for the amount of USD 44.5 m or RUB 2.271 b.
- An anti-dumping investigation with regard to hot-rolled flats has been initiated in the EU. Possible introduction of trade restrictions can affect NLMK's sales because HR flats supplies to the EU in 2015 made 153 thou t for the amount of USD 63.4 m or RUB 3.7 b.
- Due to continuous instability in the global economy, the USA maintains limits introduced in 2009 on the use of imported finished flats and semi-finished products for manufacturing of steel products intended for governmental needs as a part of the national economy stimulation program.
- Despite the decrease in the global economy growth rate as well as slowdown in the emerging economies growth and maintaining low rates of developed economies growth, it is rather unlikely that in the near future (3 months) any higher tariffs, quota and trade restrictions in the form of anti-dumping duties or special protective measures against NLMK products will be introduced, still such risks are possible in the mid-term. Moreover, the reduction of export duties on scrap and ruble devaluation contribute to enhancement of scrap export attractiveness which may trigger rise in prices and influence steel production cost.

Threat of political situation aggravation

- Aggravation of political situation in Russia and in the main sales markets is not expected;
- Continued political instability in some countries of the Middle East and North Africa is possible, which, however, will not drastically influence the Company's business due to low export volumes to these countries;
- Threat of imposition of the state of emergency in Russia does not exist;
- Imposition of the state of emergency in the main export sales markets in the nearest future (3 months) is not expected;
- Impact of political and economic instability in the Ukraine on NLMK's business can be qualified as neutral due to insignificant share of export to that country in NLMK's revenue.
- The possibility of strikes at NLMK's main sites is low both in the short- and middle-term, as the Company performs its core activities in economically and socially stable regions and fulfils its social obligations in full. Balanced social policy pursued by the Company helps to maintain stable social environment in the companies.

Threat of military conflicts - There is no threat of military conflicts in Russia.

- In the short or middle term, there is no threat of military conflicts in the main export markets.

Regional risks:

1. In the short term, the risk of significant deficit of the federal budget is not forecast.
2. Disruption of interaction between mining, iron & steel and transport segments in the short, middle or long term is not anticipated.
3. Risk of domestic sales reduction related to industrial inflation growth, decrease in economic growth rate and business activity in the real sector of Russian economy caused inter alia by ruble rate reduction, increase in crediting cost and inflation of tariffs for natural monopolies' services as well as decrease in the level of tariff shelter for metal-consuming industries after entering the WTO is assessed as moderate. Partially such risk can be mitigated by implementing counter-cyclic tax and tariff policy, implementation of infrastructure projects, facilitation of real sector's companies access to long-term borrowings, as well as reduction of steel imports to the RF from CIS countries, China and other exporting countries due to ruble devaluation and reduction of lucrative supplies to Russia due to reduction of prices in foreign currency.

Possible actions of NLMK aimed at reduction of country and regional risks:

- implementation of measures to reduce production costs and increase production efficiency;
- implementation of competitive sales policy in the domestic market;
- in case of introduction of anti-dumping measures and other trade restrictions in export markets – reorientation to other sales markets;
- development of proposals for the Government on measures aimed at support of metal-consuming sectors, promotion of demand for metal products and implementation of metal-consuming infrastructure projects;
- development of proposals on improving institutional environment for the operation of ferrous metallurgy producers;
- taking steps aimed at the protection of domestic market from unfair competition on the part of foreign suppliers of steel products, as well as resorting to trade protection measures in cooperation with other companies of the industry in case of steep growth of imports.

NLMK's production activity is conducted in the territory of the Russian Federation. Taking into account the current economic and political situation in Russia, the country risks are quite insignificant for NLMK. There are no risks for NLMK related to geographical features of the Russian Federation. NLMK and its subsidiaries have an efficient system of cooperation between the mining, iron & steel and rolling segments, its main production facilities are located within 1,500 km from NLMK's main Russian consumers, close to major transportation routes.

3.4.2. Financial risks

The Issuer is subject to various financial risks, among which are the currency, inflation risks, risks of changes in interest rates on the funds provided. The probability of their occurrence and the degree of influence on the results of financial and economic activity are continually evaluated by the Issuer and taken into account in the development plans.

Currency risks

The Issuer, being an export-oriented company, is subject to currency risks. Under the conditions of unstable situation in the global financial markets there is a possibility that currency exchange rate fluctuation range will increase, which in its turn may affect the Company's activity results.

In order to minimize currency risks, actions on currency earnings diversification are taken. While concluding foreign trade contracts, the Issuer keeps an eye on balanced bank currency positions: payments in foreign currency are covered by export revenue in the same currency.

Interest rate risk

The Issuer uses borrowed funds, therefore, there is a risk of changes in interest rates.

In order to manage these risks, the Company regularly analyses risks related to interest rates. The Issuer mitigates this risk by means of maintaining the optimal balance of credit liabilities with fixed and floating rates.

Effect of inflation on securities payments

According to the Issuer, the inflation rate will not have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's payments on the securities.

Critical rates of inflation, according to the Issuer

Critical for the Issuer is the rate of inflation in excess of 25 - 30% per year.

Indicators of the Issuer's financial statements are mostly affected by the change as a result of the influence of those financial risks.

Risk factor	The probability of its occurrence	Indicators of the Issuer's financial statements are mostly affected by the change as a result of the influence of those financial risks	Nature of the changes in reporting
Criticality level of the inflation rate	moderate	Revenues from sales, expenses, income, size of the accounts receivable, accounts payable	Limited nature of changes decreased profits, an increase in costs associated with the handling of received credits, loans, transactions on financial leasing.
Sudden change of exchange rates	High	Revenues from sales, expenses, income, size of the accounts receivable, accounts payable	Limited nature of changes decreased profits, an increase in costs associated with the handling of received credits, loans, procurement of spare parts outside the Russian Federation.
Sudden change of interest rates	moderate	Expenses, income, size of the accounts receivable, accounts payable	Significant nature of the changes: decreased profits, an increase in costs associated with the handling of received credits, loans, transactions on financial leasing.
Credit risk	High	Accounts receivable	1. Downward change in the debt amount on the balance sheet. 2. Obligatory display of provisions for accounts receivable in the financial statements.

2.4.4. Legal risks

Tax risks

In accordance with Federal Law No. 208-FZ of 26.12.1995 "On Joint Stock Companies" the Board of Directors shall exercise general management of the Company's activities with the exception of the issues referred to the competence of the General Shareholders' Meeting (cl.1, Article 64), while the Audit Commission (auditor) of the company exercises control over its financial and economic activities (cl.1, Article 85). Pursuant to the decision of the General shareholders' meeting the members of the Board of Directors (Supervisory Board) of the Company during the performance period of their duties may be paid remuneration and (or) compensation of expenses related to the performance of their duties as members of the Board of Directors (Supervisory Board); the size of such remunerations and compensations shall be determined by the General shareholders' meeting (clause 2, Article 64); a similar rule is set for the members of the Audit Commission (para. two, cl.1, Art. 85).

At the same time the above payments are not subject to contributions, because they are not made in accordance with the labor or civil contracts. This conclusion was confirmed in the letters of the Ministry of Labor of Russia dd. 22.08.2014, No. 17-3/B-400 and dd. 11.04.2016 No.17-3/B-147. The joint stock company cannot guarantee the mandatory payment of remunerations to members of the Board of Directors and the Audit Commission, and it is not consistent with the concept of a service contract stipulated in the Civil Code of the Russian Federation.

However, the Constitutional Court of the Russian Federation in its decision of 06.06.2016 No.1169-O concluded that payments to members of the Board of Directors and members of the Audit Committee are subject to taxation of insurance premiums, since, according to the Court, the relationship with the members of the Board of Directors and Audit Commission fully fall under the subject of regulation of civil law legislation (Article 2 of the Civil Code of the Russian Federation) - the relations related to the management in companies.

In addition, the controversial remuneration shall be paid in connection with the performance of duties based on the decision of the General Shareholders' meeting, either with the corresponding provision available in the contract with the members of the Board of Directors and the Audit Commission, or without such condition.

The Court pointed out that the members of the Board of Directors and the Audit Commission may be reimbursed for expenses related to the performance of their duties. These compensations under para.2 of Article 9 of Federal Law No. 212-FZ dated 24.07.2009 "On Insurance Contributions to the Pension Fund of the Russian Federation, Social Insurance Fund of the Russian Federation, the Federal Compulsory Medical Insurance Fund" are not subject to contributions.

The decision of the Constitutional Court of the Russian Federation states: "A disputed statute is one of the elements of the mechanism that ensures the exercise of citizens' right to social security, including health care, aimed at ensuring the proper functioning of the obligatory social insurance financial system and as such can not be regarded as a violation of the constitutional provisions and applicant's rights."

Similar conclusions of the Constitutional Court of the Russian Federation are in decision No. 1170-O of 06.06.2016.

According to para.5, Art. 79 of Federal Constitutional Law no. 1-FKZ of 21.07.1994 "On the Constitutional Court of the Russian Federation", "the legal opinion of the Constitutional Court of the Russian Federation as to whether the meaning of a legal act or its individual provision given by the legal practice and expressed in the decision of the Constitutional Court, corresponds to the Constitution" shall be only taken into account by the law enforcement authorities.

Thus, we believe that, given decisions No. 1169-O and 1170 of 06.06.2016 of the Constitutional Court of the Russian Federation there exists a possibility that the Funds may assess additional insurance premiums to the Company on the remunerations paid to the members of the Board of Directors and Audit Commission.

The annual update of macroeconomic pre-conditions and prioritization of investment projects allows to make strategic decisions taking into account environmental changes. It is possible to cooperate with alternative suppliers of raw materials (incl. foreign ones) without any significant price increase, while maintaining the required qualitative characteristics.

3.2.4. Sales markets for the Issuer's products (works, services)

Main markets where the Issuer conducts its business:

In Q2 of 2016 the Issuer sold steel products in domestic and foreign markets. The share of sales in the Russian market amounted to 30% of the total physical volume of sales of steel products during the reporting period, the share of export sales accounted for 70%, including 68% in the foreign countries markets and 2% in the CIS markets.

The main buyers of the Issuer's steel products in the foreign market were trading companies Novex Trading (Swiss) S.A. (78% export) and Novexco (Cyprus) Limited (19%).

The largest foreign market in the second quarter of 2016 was the European Union: 28% of export sales volume.

The main import countries of steel products of the Issuer in this region remained Belgium, Denmark and Italy.

The second geographical direction of exports in terms of deliveries was the North America, where the main buyer was the United States. 12% of sales in the foreign market are directed to the Middle East, mainly in Turkey. 5% of exports were delivered to the countries of Central and South America, mainly to Mexico. The Asian market accounted for 3% of export. The main importing countries were Indonesia, Vietnam and India. Sales in Africa amounted to 2% of exports and were mainly sent to Egypt.

The product structure of the steel product sales in the foreign markets was dominated by slabs (67% of the physical exports volume). HR flats (including pickled products) amounted to 15%, CR flats - 8%, electrical steel flats - 3%, cast iron - 6%.

In the industrial structure of export sales steel companies prevailed (84%). The share of sales to the companies of mechanical engineering (including automotive industry, electrical and technical industry and household appliances manufacturing) made 6%. Also 6% were sold to the metalworking companies and steel service centers. Sales to the pipe and tube industry companies amounted to 4%.

In the geographical structure of sales to the CIS and neighbouring countries, Belarus was predominant in the reporting period: 75% of the physical volume of sales in this group of countries. The product structure of local steel product sales was represented by slabs (19%), HR flats (32% including pickled flats), CR flats (19%), galvanized flats (16%) and pre-painted flats (11%).

2% of the physical volume of domestic sales is made by electrical steel flats and 1% is made by pig iron.

61% of sales in the domestic market were addressed to the construction industry, including 42% - to the metalworking companies and steel service centers, 19% - directly to the construction companies. Sales to the pipe and tube industry made 22%, steelmaking companies - 7%, mechanical engineering companies - 7%.

Factors that may undermine the Issuer's sales of products (works, services), and possible actions aimed at mitigation of such influence:

Negative influence on the Issuer's export sales in 2016 may be done by a possible stagnation or decrease in global steel consumption, increased overcapacity, protectionism growth in the countries with low competitive power of production and a decrease in global prices for steel-making raw materials and steel products.

The Issuer's export sales in 2016 may be adversely affected by the possible stagnation in consumption of steel against the background of weak macro economic indicators in the country and the possible growth of import products deliveries sold at the prices below the production cost.

Loose deposits are being exploited by rotor complex and cyclic excavators. Rock stripping, high grade ore and ferruginous quartzites are extracted by cyclic excavators with preliminary opening by drilling-and-blasting operations. Run-of-mine is taken out of the quarry by trucks, railway transport and conveyor transport.

High grade ore processing includes three stages of crushing and screening with separation of sintering ore.

Processing of ferruginous quartzite (magnetite) takes three stages of crushing with closed final stage, three stages of milling, magnetic separation, desludging, dehydration of concentrate on vacuum filters.

The following equipment is used:

Unit of measurement for the uncovered loss: RUB thou.

Description	2015, 6 months	2016, 6 months
Net profit margin, %	19.1	15.1
Asset turnover ratio, times	0.32	0.28
Return on assets, %	12.2	8.6
Return on equity, %	19.4	14.6
Uncovered loss as of the reporting date	0	0
Ratio of the uncovered loss as of the reporting date and assets book value, %	0	0

Notes:

1. Indicator "Asset turnover ratio, times" = Sales revenue / ((Assets as of the beginning of the year + Assets as of the end of the year) / 2). Assets value corresponds to the data of "Balance sheet" accounting (financial) statements form (form as per OKUD 0710001);

2. Indicator "Return on assets, %" = Net profit / ((Assets as of the beginning of the year + Assets as of the end of the year) / 2).

4. "Return on assets, %" and "Return on equity, %" indicators for H1 of 2015 and H1 of 2016 are given on the basis of additional calculation up to annual values.

Economic analysis of the Issuer's profitability/unprofitability, based on the dynamics of specified indicators, as well as reasons that, in the opinion of management bodies, resulted in losses/profits of the Issuer, reflected in accounting (financial) statements:

Net profit margin.

In H1 2016 NLMK's net profit margin went down to 15.1% (vs. 19.1% in H1 2015). Increased production cost of the products while reducing the revenues from their sales has led to a decrease in income from sales for 6 months of 2016, which was the main factor in the decline in net profit vs. the level of January-June of 2015.

Asset turnover ratio.

Slower turnover of one ruble of assets to 0.28 times in H1 2016 vs. 0.32 times in a respective period of the last year was achieved due to the increased total assets (+10%) with a decrease of revenues from sales (-3%).

ROA and ROE.

The standard (rules), according to which accounting (financial) statements have been prepared, used as a base for calculations: RAS

Unit of measurement for 'net working capital' indicator: RUB thou.

Description	2015, 6 months	2016, 6 months
Net working capital	143,401,572	190,361,465
Current ratio	2.6	3.3

4.7. Analysis of factors and conditions that influence the Issuer's business

Main factors that can significantly influence the activity and financial results of the Company:

Change in domestic steel market demand

Apparent steel consumption in the Russian market in H1 of 2016 increased by 4% compared to the similar period of the last year against the background of restocking by steel service companies in the period of active growth of prices. Consumption of long products in January-June, 2016 remained at the level of January-June, 2015, while apparent consumption of flat products increased by 6%⁷.

The key steel-consuming industries were noticed as having a variety of trends Manufacture of machinery and equipment in January-June of 2016 increased by 2.8% due to production growth of agricultural machinery and household appliances, at the same time, the production of passenger cars decreased by 17.9% Construction works in H1 2016 decreased by 6.9% as compared to similar period of the last year. Commissioning of residential buildings decreased by 9.2% in the 1st half of 2016, however, by the end of the II quarter of 2016 the activity in the construction sector increased.

In the 3rd quarter of 2016 a typically increased demand for steel products mainly from the construction sector is expected.

Change in export metal markets demand

Different trends of demand for steel products depending on the region were observed in foreign markets in H1 of 2016.

In China, there was a further decline in demand for steel (-2% yoy) against the background of export growth by 9%. The decline in apparent consumption in USA and Europe was due to the weakening of activity in the engineering sector. Restraint of imports allowed US producers to maintain steel production at the level of last year, it was possible to increase steel production in the 2nd quarter of 2016, compared to both the previous quarter and same period of last year. In Europe, steel production decreased by 6% in the first half of year, while increase in production was observed in the II quarter of 2016. Sustainable demand for steel is maintained in the European automotive sector, sales of passenger cars increased by 9.4%⁸ yoy in the H1 of 2016. In Q3 a possible seasonal decrease of demand is expected in the EU markets.

Issuer's products price change

⁷ Assessment was based on MetallExpert's data of June, 2016.

⁸ ACEA.

In the II quarter of 2016 price recovery for steel products continued. Prices for iron ore in the global market in Q2 of 2016 were 16% higher in average vs. Q1 of 2016. Global prices for coking coal were 14% higher in average than in January – March, 2016⁹.

Export quotations of Russian slabs in the Black Sea region were 52% higher in average vs. Q1 of 2016. Export quotations for HR sheets in April – June 2016 went up by 56% ¹⁰as compared to January – March 2016.

During Q2 of 2016 average prices of manufacturers for hot-rolled sheet flats in Russian ruble equivalent increased by 34%, average prices of manufacturers for rebars increased by 51%. Due to the ruble strengthening by 12% against the US dollar (compared with the previous quarter) and export prices increase the domestic prices for hot-rolled sheets in dollar equivalent were 52% higher compared with the I quarter of 2016, prices for rebars are 71% higher¹¹.

In the export markets prices are expected to stabilize at lower pressure from imports in the III quarter of 2016.

Analysis of factors which influenced the change of sales proceeds, cost and profit (losses) from the Issuer's core operations

Factor description	H1 2016 vs. H1 2015
Dynamics of sales proceeds, %	-3%
Dynamics of cost of sales (incl. commercial and administrative expenses), %	+6%
Dynamics of profit from product sales, %	-36%

The Issuer's sales proceeds mostly depend on the following factors: sales structure, prices for the products sold in sales markets, national currency exchange rate.

In 1H of 2016 NLMK's sales revenues decreased by 3% as compared to the same period of 2015. The main reason for the decline in NLMK's revenues was the decrease of prices for the products sold, where the share of steel product exports in tonnage is 65%. The increase in the exchange rate (profound effect) and the increase in the volume of steel products sold (medium effect) had a positive impact on the amount of revenues from sales, but were unable to offset the negative impact of the price factor.

Cost of products sold, including commercial and administrative expenses, increased by 6% in H1 of 2016 against H1 of 2015. Main factors driving that increase include: change in exchange rate (high impact), growth of sales volume (medium impact) and increase of labor costs (low impact).

As a result of the growth of production costs with less revenues from their sales the profit on sales decreased by 36%.

Report on the overview revision of interim condensed consolidated financial statements

To Shareholders and Board of Directors of NLMK

Introduction

We have performed an overview revision of the attached NLMK and its subsidiaries' (hereinafter "the Group") interim condensed consolidated financial statement as of March 31, 2016 and the respective interim condensed consolidated statements on profit and loss, total income, capital changes and cash flow for three months ended as of the given date. The management is responsible for preparation and submission of this interim condensed consolidated financial statement in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IAS) 34 "Interim Financial Statement". We are responsible for the submission of conclusion from this interim condensed consolidated financial statement on the basis of the overview revision performed by us.

Overview revision volume

We performed an overview revision in accordance with International standard on overview revisions 2410 "Overview Revision of the interim financial statements performed by an independent company auditor". The overview revision of interim financial statements is restricted to the interrogation of officials mainly responsible for the financial and accounting matters and analytical and other procedures of the overview revision. The scope of the overview revision is considerably less than the volume of the audit which is held in accordance with International Audit Standards that is why the overview revision does not ensure that we learn all the significant aspects which could have been revealed in course of audit. Therefore, we do not give an auditor's opinion.

Conclusion

We have carried out an overview revision and we find no evidence to the fact that the attached interim condensed consolidated financial statements, in all their significant aspects, were not prepared in line with International Financial Reporting Standards (IAS) 34 "Interim Financial Statement".
